

For the "Weaker Sex"

A healthy body is important to every woman. Women cannot go happily about their work or duties when they feel weak, run-down, nervous, listless or depressed. Many women are seldom really ill, but suffer at times from lassitude, loss of appetite, sick headache and other ailments which interfere with health and take the joy out of living, and make work irksome.

No woman should neglect her health, her digestion, her nerves or good looks. She should take proper care of herself, and fortify her system against the disorders peculiar to her sex, by promptly taking

BEECHAM'S PILLS

A remedy long used and highly prized by women, for the good it does. These harmless but effective pills increase the supply of pure blood, right a disordered digestion and remove constipation. They rapidly tone the nerves, improve the general health and help the organs to function properly and regularly as nature intended.

Made entirely of medicinal herbs, Beecham's Pills may be safely taken by women, whenever needed, with most happy results. They create appetite, help the digestion, clear the complexion, brighten the eyes and bring strength to run-down nerves. For over sixty years, in all parts of the world, Beecham's Pills have been of untold benefit to womankind. They are always prompt and sure, and may be depended on, to promptly relieve, help and

Strengthen Weak Women

At All Druggists
10c, 25c.

Directions of special value to women with every box.

HARDWICK

Maud Leslie Pierce has returned from the Fanny Allen hospital in Winooski, where he has been for several weeks, and she is much improved in health.

Andrew McCaffery of Providence, R. I., was in town this week.

Mrs. Nelson Coburn and daughter, Miss Bessie, have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Worcester, Mass.

Miss Mildred Taylor has returned to Middlebury with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaValley were called to St. Johnsbury Saturday by the death of Mrs. LaValley's father, William MacDonald.

Mrs. J. E. Conant visited relatives in Morrisville this week.

The Hardwick Teachers' association held their first business meeting and entertainment at the school building on Wednesday evening.

WEBSTERVILLE

All turn out to the Barre opera house Dec. 8 and hear Mother Jones, the miners' angel.—adv.

MIDDLESEX

Mrs. Levi Swift visited relatives in Berlin Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Daniels arrived in town Thursday night and are visiting at Albert Taplin's.

J. B. Hill is moving from the village to the Egan house, recently purchased.

At the Home circle meeting Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Lillian Miles was presented one-half dozen solid silver teaspoons by the ladies of the circle.

Mrs. George Smalley passed away Friday morning after a three days' illness with pleural pneumonia. She is survived by a husband and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Bosquet and Mrs. Luke Somers, both of this place.

ORANGE

The Mothers' club will hold a fair Dec. 4, afternoon and evening, at the Lancant schoolhouse in Plainfield. There will be a nice program in the evening and many useful and fancy things on sale, also home-made candy, peanuts, and a fishbowl for the little children. There will be no admission fee, so the public is invited.—adv.

RANDOLPH

Albert Lamb Died Friday—He Was a Captain in the Union Army.

Albert Lamb, who for the last week has been critically ill with pneumonia, died at 2 o'clock on Friday morning at his home on the old road to the Center. Mr. Lamb has not been strong for several years. Albert M. Lamb was born in Granville, in the year 1839, one of four children of David Y. and Esther (Martin) Lamb. When a lad he came with his parents to this place to live, but he afterwards went West, and upon the breaking out of the Civil war, enlisted in an Illinois regiment and went into service as lieutenant. Not long after that he was made captain and remained in the rank till his term of service expired. He was wounded in the battle of Peach Tree Creek, and was in the hospital for some time. Following his discharge from the army, he went farther west and engaged in work on the Union Pacific railroad. Fond of traveling, he visited nearly every state in the Union, and lived in the West for many years. More than fifteen years ago he returned to Vermont and came to Randolph, and since that time has been on the old place. Mr. Lamb was married three times, his first wife having been Roxie McDonald of Woodstock, Ohio, and one son was born to them who died when quite young, and was buried in the Woodstock cemetery. Later Mr. Lamb married Lucretia Gray, and a daughter, Lena, was the fruit of this union, and this child now, Mrs. Bergamo, has been with him for the last few months, and was with him in his last hour, ministering to his comfort. A third wife was Emma Bliss, who was never known here. Mr. Lamb was a member of the post, and the U. S. Grant post of this place will serve at his funeral on Sunday afternoon. Deceased was the last of his family, except a brother, Frank Lamb, who has been in the West and may still be alive. Interment will be in the family lot at Southview cemetery.

Miss Marie Van Valkenburgh, who has been with Mrs. J. F. Tewksbury for the last ten weeks as trimmer in her millinery store, left on Friday for her home in Athol, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Unwin and the former's mother, Mrs. Jennie Unwin, motored here on Thursday from Somerville, Mass., to remain till Saturday with W. C. Slack.

L. G. Raycroft, the young man from the Center, who has been in several different places in town and one night slept in the Methodist church, went to the Maples last Saturday and engaged a room. Sunday the authorities were notified, and after consulting Judge Stowe, the boy was taken to Waterbury and placed in the hospital for observation.

Mrs. Sarah Thompson of Newport, N. H., has come for a few days' visit with her brother, C. S. Booth, and family.

There were present at the Pomona grange meeting at the dinner hour on Thursday, about 100 people.

A party of eight from Beulah chapter, O. E. S., went to Brookfield on Thursday night to visit Crescent chapter, and attend the meeting when the visitation of the deputies took place.

Mrs. John W. Bass was summoned to Brattleboro Tuesday by the death of her father, George H. Niles, who was an electrician of much experience.

Hon. Frank Plumley of Northfield will speak before the Brotherhood meeting on Monday night on prohibition. Special music and other attractions will be the feature of the evening.

The White River poultry show will be held in Dubois & Gay's hall Dec. 14, 15 and 16 of December, when it is expected there will be a large number of entries and a good exhibition for the entire three days.

Walter Burt of Stafford Springs has been at the Maples for a few days while visiting his daughter, Miss Margaret Burt, who is studying for a nurse, at the sanatorium.

News has been received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connolly in Bowman, N. D.

Miss Una Allen, who recently went to New England, N. D., where she had a position in a department store, has finished there and is now employed in the First National bank at that place.

Mrs. C. B. Hollis is in Natick, Mass., for a several days' stay with her mother, Mrs. C. H. Jones.

BETHEL

Tanning Company Is Working Overtime—Women Now Employed There.

The Bethel Chrome Tanning Co. is so busy filling its orders for leather that a part of its employees return each evening and work till 9:30. For the first time in the history of the leather business in Bethel, women are being employed in the finishing department. About 15 are now learning the trade, all of them Vermont young women. They work from 7:30 to 5:30 with an hour off at noon and on Saturday stay work at 4:30, making a total of 43 hours a week.

Barbara Perkins, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, was decidedly better yesterday.

Idie I. Dearing has been absent a few days from his place in the Terry jewelry store, because of an attack of grippe.

The Universalist fair continued yesterday and there was a very large attendance in the evening to enjoy the theatrical comedy, "The Hottentots," by a really brilliant local talent cast made up of Robert Noble, Jr., John Noble, Edwin McIntyre, Rev. W. C. Harvey, Charles L. Lilley, Mildred Shaw, Mary Cushing, Pearl Ralph, Mrs. A. L. Cady, Mrs. G. A. Marsh, Gilbert Marshall, Alice King, Irene Wright and Teddy Clifford. The sale of articles from the booths was considered satisfactory both days and the general impression is that the fair was a great success.

M. N. Kendall went yesterday to Springfield, Mass., to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Miller, and family. On his return Mrs. Kendall, who has been three weeks in Springfield, will come with him.

A bear killed in Hancock and weighing 225 pounds, was here several hours yesterday on the way to the home of its purchaser, Glenn Wilkins of Morrisville. It was the largest bear many persons had ever seen.

Thos. Groves shot a 250-pound buck on Arthur Lee's meadow last Wednesday. Frank Fifield shot one which crossed 100 pounds in Pittsfield. Charles L. Lilley shot a spike-horn buck yesterday near Charles H. Arnold's in the edge of Stockbridge.

Many Men Will Suck a part of their capital in some form of speculation, when, if they would sink the same amount in the purchase of an annuity, would have an adequate income for their lifetime. Ask us for information. National Life Ins. Co. of N. Y. (Incorporated in U. S.) 300 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Madlock visited in Barre Thursday.

Mrs. Blanche Answorth visited at B. B. Park's in Hardwick the first of the week.

Leslie and Herbert Richardson of Albany were recent visitors at their sister's, Mrs. Louis Danahill.

Miss and Mrs. Thomas returned to Morrisville Wednesday.

WOODBURY

Maurice Nelson of Montpelier was a recent visitor in town.

Blanche Newbery has returned from St. Albans, where she has been visiting relatives.

Harold Smith and Horace Tucker of Wolcott were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Walton have gone to Springfield, Mass., for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Danahill were called to Albany the last of the week by the death of Mrs. Danahill's sister.

Ray Daniels, Mildred Barlow and Alice Burt have returned to their school work at Hardwick academy.

Nancy Chapp, who has been quite ill, is slowly gaining.

Mr. and Mrs. George Madlock visited in Barre Thursday.

Mrs. Blanche Answorth visited at B. B. Park's in Hardwick the first of the week.

Leslie and Herbert Richardson of Albany were recent visitors at their sister's, Mrs. Louis Danahill.

Miss and Mrs. Thomas returned to Morrisville Wednesday.

GRANITEVILLE

All turn out to the Barre opera house Dec. 8 and hear Mother Jones, the miners' angel.—adv.

GROTON

Irene Welch, 4, So Severely Burned She May Not Live.

Irene, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welch, was shockingly burned Wednesday forenoon. During the absence of her parents, who were out hunting, the little girl and her younger brother were attempting to light a lamp in the cellar for apples when her clothing caught fire. The aged-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Libeus Welch, were with the children and finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until the child was so terribly burned that her recovery is not expected.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Webber of Barre arrived in town Wednesday and are visiting old friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Clark were in Montpelier Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Helen Ricker, Mrs. J. T. Darling and Mrs. C. J. Bailey were in Marshfield Thursday to attend a church sale.

Mrs. E. E. Darling was a visitor in Montpelier Thursday.

C. C. Lord left Thursday afternoon for St. Johnsbury, where he has employment in the office of the St. Johnsbury Caledonian.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold their annual sale on Wednesday, 8, at the church commencing with a chicken-pie dinner at noon. A variety supper will also be served at 6 o'clock.

During the afternoon there will be on sale a line of fancy articles, aprons, vegetables, candy and ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Scott returned from Boston the first of the week, where they went prior to Thanksgiving.

Miss Jennie Dennis is visiting her sister, Miss Grace Dennis, at East Hampton, Mass.

Frank Carrouth has sold his farm on the Topham road to Charles Moulton.

The body of Mrs. William Eastman was brought here Wednesday and taken to Topham for funeral service and burial beside her husband. Mrs. Eastman died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Edward Colby of St. Johnsbury, where she had lived for some time. She had reached the advanced age of 94 years and five months. Accompanying the body were Mrs. Eastman's daughter, Mrs. Clark, and her son of Haverhill, N. H., and Edward Colby of St. Johnsbury.

SOUTH RYEGATE

A. Anderson Has Sold Granite Business to Andreoletti & Gandin.

A. Anderson has sold out his granite business to the new firm of Andreoletti & Gandin and it is reported will move his family to Quincy, Mass.

L. E. Whitehill has purchased of F. J. Tewksbury the house of which he has been tenant the past six months.

Frank Brown has purchased the house owned by W. H. Goodfellow and rented by Charles Green; purchase price, $1,200.

Mrs. Albert Goodine, with her two children, came Saturday from Nova Scotia and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grant.

Rev. Mr. Simpson, who has been preaching in Ontario, will supply the pulpit of the Presbyterian church through December and January, beginning next Sunday. He will board at L. E. Whitehill's.

The next entertainment of the lecture course will be a lecture by the popular L. B. Wickersham, on the evening of Dec. 13. For the convenience of out of town people who wish to attend the lecture the ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve supper at 6 o'clock in the vestry.

Alex. J. Smith, after a few days' vacation at his home here, went Saturday to Ipswich on insurance business.

George K. McDonald was home last week from Boston, where he is taking an engineering course.

Lloyd Darling expects to go to Niagara Falls, N. Y., next week, having had the offer of employment by an electrical company there.

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Martyn of Plantsville, Conn., are guests of their daughter, Mrs. George Crowe.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church held a big Christmas sale at the vestry Friday.

F. J. Tewksbury is building a garage for A. T. Boston.

J. Forbes Boston took the civil service examination for R. F. D. carrier at Woodsville, N. H. Saturday.

T. A. Courtney, who recently sold his farm to Ernest Grapes, has moved his family into the tenement in Mrs. Nancy Randall's house.

EAST BETHEL

The grange has postponed its play, "The Country Minister," which was to have been given Friday night. The postponement was caused by a misunderstanding of dates in engaging the proper hall.

Mrs. Myron Fowler and daughter, Edith, returned to their home in Starkboro Friday, after spending Thanksgiving with relatives here. Mr. Fowler will remain here for the present, assisting in his father's store.

Mrs. Edward Field of Northfield is visiting her father, Ziba Page, who is in feeble health.

Charles Langhorne has finished work on the quarry.

A. A. Sherris suffered a fainting spell at Buck's store Thursday morning. He was taken into the house, where he soon rallied and went to his home.

CUTLER CORNER

School closed Nov. 15, after a term of 12 weeks. The following scholars had no marks of any kind: Edmund Carver, Russell McCormack, Claude and Percy Rogers. Those present every day, but having no mark of disapproval: Lena and Sylvia Corti. Irene Corti was absent only one-half day and dismissed once; Corinna McCormack was absent only one day and dismissed once. There were no tardy marks during the entire term.

The scholars that won first prize in spelling were: Chase No. 1, Percy Rogers; No. 2, Anna Nicholas; No. 3, Sylvia Corti; No. 4, Lillian Jerry. Anna Nicholas obtained an average mark for the term of 90 per cent in spelling.

Your Maxwell Is Ready Now!

Ready for you to step into the luxurious front seat, start it with the complete modern controls, and drive it home, to the envy of the neighbors.

AND AS YOU RIDE YOU PAY

Nothing could better demonstrate our faith in the Maxwell's ability to stand up; nothing could better demonstrate our certainty that you will be pleased with the streamline body, the splendid appearance, the ready motor, the electric starter and lights, the demountable rims. Lots of power. All for $655.

LET US DEMONSTRATE

Open Evenings and Sundays

DROWN MOTOR CAR COMPANY

JEFFERSON STREET

BARRE, VERMONT

PARK THEATRE

VERMONT'S BEST PHOTOPLAY HOUSE
Matinee, 2:15 to 5
Evening, 7 and 8:30

Saturday, December 4

THE WORLD FILM CORPORATION PRESENTS LILLIAN TUCKER AND EDWIN AUGUST IN

"Evidence"

BASED ON THE DRAMA OF THE SAME NAME—THIS IS A SHUBERT FEATURE AND A BIG ONE

Other Good Pictures

Monday, December 6

JESSE L. LASKY COMPANY PRESENTS THE PARAMOUNT PROGRAM

"Chimmie Fadden"

FEATURING THE DRAMATIC STAR, VICTOR MOORE, IN ONE OF HIS BEST COMEDY DRAMAS

Other Good Pictures

Change of Program Every Day

PRICES: Adults, Balcony 50c; Orchestra, 100c; Children under 14 Years, 50c

PAVILION THEATRE THE GRIEVES' MUSICAL COMPANY

in an entire new show to please the ladies and children
An old-time schoolroom act that will take you back to the days when you used to cut up in school

PHOTOPLAYS

THE INSURRECTION

A three-part Lubin drama made by Lubin, featuring Ormi Hawley and Earl Metcalf

PRICE - - - 10 Cents to Everybody

Andes Stoves and Ranges For Wood, Coal, or Gas

Stove Pipe, Dampers, and Elbows, Stove Boards, Wringers, Wash Boilers and Tubs, Copper Teakettles, and Teapots.

Oil Heaters for sale or rent.

E. A. PRINDLE & CO.

'Phone 595-1 Buzzell Block, Pearl Street, Barre, Vt.

All Kinds of Wood for Sale

Block Wood, mostly maple, per cord, $3.00
Split Block Wood, per cord, 3.25
Chair Wood, per load, 2.50
Mixed Hard and Soft Wood, per load, 1.75

ARTHUR S. MARTIN, Office 118 No. Main St.

The New Troup Studio Worthen Block

The most modern studio in Vermont. Private dressing-room for ladies and children. Large groups a specialty. Make appointments for Christmas sittings now. Dull weather does not matter. Hours, 9 to 3:30.

OPEN SUNDAYS

A beautiful and artistic 1916 Calendar will be given free with every order amounting to $6.00, same to be made previous to Dec. 20. See them in display case near entrance.

TROUP—

the photographer in Barre. 'Phone, 389

This Outfit Does the Trick

Use a "RELIANCE LINE" outfit and saw up your wood.

You will be surprised to find how much cold cash you can get by saving up and selling what at first appears to you to be waste wood, but is really valuable.

Wood brings high prices this winter, and it should only take you a short time to pay for this whole outfit.

GASOLINE ENGINES For All Purposes

Small Engines for Cream Separators, etc.
Large Engines for Sawing, etc.

"RELIANCE LINE" engines perform every duty with faithfulness, efficiency and lowest cost.

Write us or see C. E. Brackett, our general agent at Barre, or J. L. Archer, Barre. Read our catalog 25c, and other literature you will find in our showrooms.

BRACKETT, SHAW & LUNT CO.

Barre, Vt. "RELIANCE LINE" Boston, Mass.